In late October 1952, [redacted] seven stages of the construction project on Ruegen Island were completed at a cost of 3.9 million eastmarks. The completion date for the last construction stage was 20 November. About 1,400 workers and 160 Soviet soldiers have been employed on the project since 1 September. The buildings under construction are scheduled to quarter the Arty Unit [redacted] commanded by Colonel Gadus (fnu); Motorized Unit [redacted] commanded by Colonel Kilibatov (fnu); and Unit [redacted] commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Belik (fnu). Since 7 October, Unit Belik has used the kitchens, messhalls and showers of the installation. The project is being executed by the Kreisbauhof of Bergen. 25X1

1. [redacted] Comment. Information on Soviet construction projects in the Prora area was received previously. The buildings border on the VP barracks installation to the north and are located between Prora and Neu Lukran. [redacted] The report indicates that the newly constructed barracks installation will be occupied by the 4th AT Arty Brig (US) which has so far been quartered in temporary billets on Ruegen Island. [redacted] confirm two units, probably regiments of this brigade, until late October 1952. Colonel Kilibatov was previously reported [redacted] as being the commanding officer [redacted] Previously, [redacted] has been observed only in Jueterbog where the brigade was stationed prior to May 1952. It is believed that this [redacted] to a unit of this brigade. 25X1
